Rules of procedure of the United Nations Habitat Assembly

I. Sessions

United Nations Habitat Assembly

Rule 1
Under the authority of the General Assembly, the United Nations Habitat Assembly of the United Nations Human Settlements Programme (UN-Habitat Assembly) will provide the political and strategic framework under which the United Nations Human Settlements Programme (UN-Habitat) will function, dedicated to the promotion of sustainable urban development and human settlements.

Functions and competencies

Rule 2
The UN-Habitat Assembly, having a universal governmental membership, will convene in Nairobi for a five-day period every four years to, among other things, undertake the following:

(a) Identify key issues and areas of focus for the normative and policy work of UN-Habitat;
(b) Review major trends relating to human settlements and urbanization;
(c) Examine global norms and standards relating to human settlements and sustainable urbanization;
(d) Adopt resolutions, declarations, recommendations, formal decisions, reports and other documents pertaining to strategic vision and political guidance, in accordance with its mandate;
(e) Recommend strategies for the coherent implementation of the dimensions of urban and human settlements contained in the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, the New Urban Agenda and other global agendas, including in the work of the United Nations system;
(f) Examine and approve the UN-Habitat strategic plan, to be prepared by the Executive Board;
(g) Review the quadrennial report of the Secretary-General on progress in the implementation of the New Urban Agenda.

Date of opening of regular sessions

Rule 3
1. Each regular session of the UN-Habitat Assembly shall be held, subject to the provisions of rule 4, at a date fixed by the Assembly at its previous session, in such a way, if practicable, as to enable the Economic and Social Council and the General Assembly to consider the report of the UN-Habitat Assembly in the same year.

2. When setting the date for the session of the UN-Habitat Assembly in a given year, the dates of meetings of other relevant bodies, including the high-level political forum on sustainable development, should be taken into account.

Rule 4
Any alteration to a set date for a regular session of the UN-Habitat Assembly shall be requested in writing, either by at least 10 members of the Assembly, equitably representing the five regions, or by the Executive Director. The new date should not be earlier than nine months after the request was made. Rule 3 should remain unaffected by such a change of date. In either case, the Executive Director shall communicate the request to the other members of the Assembly forthwith, together with appropriate observations, including financial implications, if any. If, within 21 days of the request, a majority of the members of the Assembly explicitly concur with the request, the Executive Director shall convene the Assembly accordingly.
Place of sessions

Rule 5
Sessions of the UN-Habitat Assembly shall be held at the headquarters of UN-Habitat in Nairobi.

Special sessions

Rule 6
1. Special sessions may be held under unexpected circumstances pursuant to a decision taken by the UN-Habitat Assembly at a regular session or at the request of any of the following:
   (a) A majority of the States Members of the United Nations;
   (b) The General Assembly;
   (c) The Economic and Social Council;
   (d) The President of the UN-Habitat Assembly, with the concurrence of the other members of the Bureau of the Assembly and in consultation with the Executive Director.

2. The Executive Director shall immediately inform all States Members of the United Nations of the request, as well as the approximate cost and relevant administrative and other considerations. The Executive Director shall simultaneously circulate the advice of the Executive Board on the aspects of the request that fall under its mandate. If, within 21 days of the circulation of the above, a majority of the States Members of the United Nations explicitly concur with the request, the Executive Director shall convene a special session of the UN-Habitat Assembly.

Date of opening of special sessions

Rule 7
Special sessions of the UN-Habitat Assembly shall normally be convened within 42 days of the receipt by the Executive Director of a request for such a session, at a date fixed by the President of the Assembly in consultation with the Executive Director, taking into account such observations as may have been made in the request for a special session.

Notification of sessions

Rule 8
1. The Executive Director shall send notification of the date of each session of the UN-Habitat Assembly and its provisional agenda to the following:

Adjournment of sessions

Rule 9
The UN-Habitat Assembly may decide to adjourn any session temporarily and resume meeting at a later date.

II. Agenda

Rule 11
The notification referred to in rule 8 shall include a copy of the provisional agenda for the session.
Supplementary items

Rule 12

1. After the UN-Habitat Assembly has considered the provisional agenda for the following session of the Assembly, any authority entitled under rule 10, paragraph 2 to propose an item for the provisional agenda may propose supplementary items for inclusion in that agenda not less than 49 days in advance of the opening date of the session. Such a proposal, unless made by the General Assembly, shall be examined by the Committee of Permanent Representatives during its meeting to prepare for the regular session of the UN-Habitat Assembly, in accordance with rule 23, and shall be accompanied by a supporting statement from the party proposing it, explaining the urgency of the consideration of the item.

2. The Executive Director shall communicate to the UN-Habitat Assembly, through the Committee of Permanent Representatives, any request for the inclusion of the supplementary items received before the start of the regular session, with the accompanying supporting statements, where applicable, together with any comments or observations that the Executive Director may wish to make on such matters.

Adoption of the agenda

4. The UN-Habitat Assembly may allocate items between the plenary meetings of the Assembly and may refer items without preliminary debate in the Assembly to the following:

   (a) Its intersessional organs, in accordance with their functions and schedule of meetings as defined herein;

   (b) The Executive Director, to study and report upon at a subsequent session of the Assembly;

   (c) The sponsor of the item, for further information or documentation.

Provisional agenda for a special session

Rule 14

The provisional agenda for a special session shall consist only of those items proposed for consideration in the request for the holding of the session. It shall be transmitted to the authorities mentioned in rule 8 at the same time as the notification of the convening of the UN-Habitat Assembly.

Revision of the agenda

Rule 15

During a regular session, the UN-Habitat Assembly may revise its agenda for that session by adding, deleting, deferring or amending items. Only items that the Assembly considers to be important and urgent may be added to the agenda during a session.
III. Representation and credentials

Representation

Rule 16
States Members of the United Nations shall be represented by accredited representatives, including a head of delegation, and such alternate representatives and advisers as may be required.

Credentials

Rule 17
1. The credentials of representatives and the names of alternate representatives and advisers shall be submitted to the Executive Director before the first meeting that the representatives are to attend.
2. The Bureau of the UN-Habitat Assembly shall examine the credentials and submit its report to the Assembly. The present rule shall not, however, prevent a State Member of the United Nations from changing its representatives, alternate representatives or advisers subsequently, subject to proper submission and examination of credentials, where needed.

IV. Bureau

Rule 18
1. During the final meeting of a regular session, the UN-Habitat Assembly shall elect the five members of its Bureau, composed of Member States elected to hold the offices of President, Rapporteur and three Vice-Presidents. In addition, the five members of the Bureau of the Committee of Permanent Representatives shall jointly serve as additional Vice-Presidents of the Bureau of the Assembly.

2. If a Member State resigns from the office of President, Vice-President or Rapporteur, another Member State from the same regional group shall be designated to fill the vacancy.

Acting President

Rule 21

V. Intersessional organs

Rule 22
The UN-Habitat Assembly has two permanent intersessional organs: the Committee of Permanent Representatives and the Executive Board.

Committee of Permanent Representatives

Rule 23
1. The Committee of Permanent Representatives is composed of all Permanent Representatives of States Members of the United Nations and members of the United Nations specialized agencies that are accredited to UN-Habitat.

2. The Committee of Permanent Representatives shall convene, in an open-ended manner, twice every four years: once prior to the UN-Habitat Assembly, in preparation for that session, and once for a high-level midterm review. If necessary to efficiently implement its mandate to prepare the next session of the Assembly, the Committee may, on a basis of consensus, establish subcommittees.

Executive Board

Rule 24
1. The Executive Board shall be composed of 36 members, elected by the UN-Habitat Assembly on the basis of equitable geographical representation, following the formula set out in the Report on the work of the Open-ended Working Group established by the Chair of the Committee of Permanent Representatives.¹

2. The members of the Executive Board shall serve for a period of 4 years, commencing with their election during a session of the UN-Habitat Assembly.

3. The Executive Board will meet in regular session in Nairobi two or three times per year, as appropriate, to, among other things:

   (a) Oversee the implementation of the normative and operational activities of UN-Habitat;

   (b) Ensure accountability, transparency, efficiency and effectiveness;

   (c) Approve and oversee the implementation of the annual programme of work and budget and the resource mobilization strategy, in accordance with the strategic plans and the political guidelines provided by the UN-Habitat Assembly;

   (d) Adopt decisions, within the scope of its mandate, on, among other things, programmatic, operational and budgetary issues, for the adequate and effective implementation of the resolutions and decisions adopted by the UN-Habitat Assembly;

   (g) Collaborate with the executive boards of other United Nations agencies, funds and programmes, in accordance with the management reform programme of the Secretary-General.

Rule 25
The Executive Board shall have delegation of authority from the UN-Habitat Assembly to submit periodic reports to the General Assembly through the Economic and Social Council on issues pertinent to the mandate of the Executive Board in the years when the UN-Habitat Assembly is not in session.

Sessional organs

Rule 26
During the session, the UN-Habitat Assembly may set up such other sessional organs, subcommittees or working groups, composed of States Members of the United Nations and members of the United Nations specialized agencies, as it may deem necessary and refer to them any item on the agenda or any other question for consideration and reporting.

Officers

Rule 27
At the end of each of its meetings, the Committee of Permanent Representatives shall elect its Bureau, which shall be composed of a Chair, three Vice-Chairs and a Rapporteur. In electing five Member States to hold those offices, the Committee of Permanent Representatives shall ensure that each of the five regional groups is equally represented in the Bureau.

Joint Bureaux

Rule 28
The respective Bureaux of the UN-Habitat Assembly, the Committee of Permanent Representatives and the Executive Board may, for the purpose of coordinating their activities, conduct joint Bureaux meetings.

Applicable rules of procedure

Rule 29
The rules of procedure of the UN-Habitat Assembly shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to all intersessional organs that do not have their own rules of procedure. Where an intersessional organ has its own rules of procedure, the rules of procedure of the Assembly may apply in cases where the rules of intersessional organs are silent. The Executive Board of UN-Habitat shall act in accordance with its own rules of procedure.

VI. Executive Director

Duties of the Executive Director

Rule 30
1. The Executive Director shall act in his or her capacity at all meetings of the UN-Habitat Assembly and of its intersessional organs. The Executive Director may designate a member of the secretariat to act as his or her representative.
2. The Executive Director shall be responsible for performing those functions in relation to the UN-Habitat Assembly that he or she is required to undertake as Executive Director of UN-Habitat.
3. The Executive Director shall be responsible for providing and directing the staff required by the UN-Habitat Assembly or any intersessional organ. The Executive Director shall also be responsible for making all necessary arrangements for the meetings of the Assembly and its intersessional organs, including the preparation and distribution of documents in the official and working languages of the United Nations at least 42 days in advance of the session of the Assembly and its intersessional organs, without prejudice to rule 48, paragraph 2.

Duties of the secretariat of the UN-Habitat Assembly reports and relevant documentation of the Assembly in all official and working languages; shall have custody of the documents in the archives of the Assembly; and shall perform all other work that the Assembly may require.

Statements by the secretariat

Rule 32
The Executive Director, or a member of the secretariat designated by the Executive Director, may at any time, upon the invitation of the President of the UN-Habitat Assembly, deliver oral or written statements to the Assembly or the intersessional organs concerning any matter under consideration.

Statement of financial implications

Rule 33
1. Before the UN-Habitat Assembly takes action on any proposal pertaining to the functions described in rule 2 involving the expenditure of United Nations funds, including funds of the United Nations Habitat and Human Settlements Foundation, or having financial implications, the Executive Director shall prepare and circulate in due time to all States Members of the United Nations and members of the United Nations specialized agencies or the intersessional organ concerned, the estimates and detailed statements of the financial implications of implementing the proposal.

2. The UN-Habitat Assembly shall consider the estimates and statements referred to in paragraph 1 above before adopting any proposal involving the expenditure of the United Nations funds, including the resources of the United Nations Habitat and Human Settlements Foundation. If a proposal is adopted, the Assembly shall indicate, whenever appropriate, the priority or degree of urgency that it attaches thereto and which parts of the proposal may be deferred, modified or eliminated to ensure that the work of UN-Habitat will be carried out in the most effective manner possible.

3. The Executive Director shall also submit to the UN-Habitat Assembly estimates of expenditure by the United Nations Habitat and Human Settlements Foundation for the same biennium, in accordance with the general procedures governing the operations of the Foundation, United Nations financial regulations 5.10 and 9.4 and relevant financial rules as contained in ST/SGB/UNHHSF Financial Rules/3.

VII. Languages and records

Official and working languages

Rule 34
1. Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish shall be the official and working languages of the UN-Habitat Assembly. Speeches made in any of those languages shall be interpreted into the other languages of the Assembly.

2. Any representative may make a statement in a language other than an official language, provided he or she arranges for interpretation of the statement into one of the official and working languages of the UN-Habitat Assembly. Interpretation into the other official languages by the secretariat interpreters may be based on the interpretation provided in the first official language.

Languages of resolutions and other formal decisions

Rule 35
All resolutions, recommendations, other formal decisions and reports of the UN-Habitat Assembly shall be made available in the official and working languages of the Assembly.
Circulation of formal decisions and reports

Rule 36
Resolutions, recommendations and other formal decisions of the UN-Habitat Assembly shall be immediately communicated by the secretariat to all members of the Assembly and to any other participants in the session. The published text of such resolutions, recommendations and other formal decisions, as well as the report of the UN-Habitat Assembly to the General Assembly through the Economic and Social Council, shall be distributed, including through electronic means, in the official and working languages of the UN-Habitat Assembly after the closing of the session to all States Members of the United Nations and members of the United Nations specialized agencies referred to in the present rules.

Rule 37
Sound recordings of meetings of the UN-Habitat Assembly shall be made and kept by the secretariat in accordance with the applicable rules and practice of the United Nations. Such recordings may also be made of the proceedings of any intersessional organ should the Assembly so decide.

VIII. Public and private meetings

General principle

Rule 38
Meetings of the UN-Habitat Assembly, its sessional committees, working groups and other intersessional organs shall be held in public unless the body concerned decides otherwise.

IX. Conduct of business

Quorum

Rule 39
The President may declare a meeting of the UN-Habitat Assembly open and permit the debate to proceed when representatives of at least one third of the members of the Assembly are present. The presence of representatives of a majority of the members of the Assembly shall, however, be required for any decision to be taken.

General powers of the President

Rule 40
1. In addition to exercising the powers conferred upon the President by the present rules, the President shall declare the opening and closing of each meeting of the UN-Habitat Assembly, direct the discussions, ensure the observance of the present rules, accord the right to speak, put questions to a vote and announce decisions. The President, subject to the present rules, shall have complete control of the proceedings of the Assembly and the maintenance of order at its meetings. The President shall rule on points of order. He or she may propose to the Assembly the closure of the list of speakers, a limitation on the time allocated to speakers and on the number of times the representative of each member of the Assembly may speak on an item, the adjournment or closure of the debate, and the suspension or adjournment of a meeting.
2. In the exercise of his or her functions, the President remains under the authority of the UN-Habitat Assembly.

Speeches

Rule 41
1. The UN-Habitat Assembly shall only be addressed after the President has granted permission.
Debate shall be confined to the question before the UN-Habitat Assembly, and the President may call a speaker to order if the remarks of the speaker are not relevant to the subject under discussion.

Subject to rules 41 and 43, the President shall call upon speakers in the order in which they signify their desire to speak.

At the request of the delegations concerned, the order of speakers may be altered.

Points of order

Rule 42
1. During the discussion of any matter, a representative may at any time raise a point of order, which shall be decided on immediately by the President in accordance with the present rules. A representative may appeal against the ruling of the President. The appeal shall be put to a vote immediately, and the ruling of the President shall stand unless overruled by a majority of the members present and voting.
2. A representative may not, in raising a point of order, speak on the substance of the matter under discussion.

Right of reply

Rule 43
The right of reply shall be accorded by the President to any State Member of the United Nations or any member of a United Nations specialized agency that requests it. Representatives should attempt, in exercising this right, to be as brief as possible and, preferably, to deliver their statements at the end of the meeting at which this right is requested.

Motions to suspend or adjourn a meeting

Rule 44
A representative of any State Member of the United Nations may at any time during the discussion of any matter move that the meeting be suspended or adjourned. The UN-Habitat Assembly shall, without discussion, decide immediately on such a motion.

Motions to adjourn debate

Rule 45
A representative of any State Member of the United Nations may at any time move that the debate on the item under discussion be adjourned. Permission to speak on the motion shall be granted only to two other representatives in favour of the motion and to two opposing it, after which the UN-Habitat Assembly shall decide immediately on the motion.

Motions to close debate

Rule 46
A representative of any State Member of the United Nations may at any time move that the debate on the item under discussion be closed, irrespective of whether any other representative has expressed a wish to speak. Permission to speak on the motion shall be accorded only to two representatives opposing the closure, after which the UN-Habitat Assembly shall decide immediately on the motion.

Order of motions

Rule 47
Subject to the right to raise a point of order under rule 42, the following motions shall have precedence in the order indicated over all other proposals and motions before the meeting:
(a) To suspend the meeting;
(b) To adjourn the meeting;
(c) To adjourn the debate on the item under discussion;
(d) To close the debate on the item under discussion.

Submission of proposals and substantive amendments

Rule 48
1. Proposals and substantive amendments by States Members of the United Nations or members of the United Nations specialized agencies shall be submitted in writing, including through electronic means, to the Executive Director, who shall circulate copies thereof to the members of the UN-Habitat Assembly. The President may accept a proposal, or a substantive amendment made orally, from States Members of the United Nations or members of the United Nations specialized agencies.
2. In principle, no such proposal or amendment shall be discussed or voted upon at any meeting of the UN-Habitat Assembly unless copies of it have been made available to all States Members of the United Nations and members of the United Nations specialized agencies, in writing, including through electronic means, no later than the day preceding the meeting. Subject to the approval of the Assembly, the President may, however, permit the discussion and consideration of proposals or amendments even though those proposals or amendments have not been circulated or have only been circulated the same day.

Withdrawal of proposals and motions

Rule 49
1. A proposal or motion may be withdrawn by its sponsor at any time before voting on it has begun, provided that the motion has not been amended.
2. A proposal or a motion thus withdrawn may be reintroduced by another member.

Decisions on competence

Rule 50
Any motion raising the issue of the competence of the UN-Habitat Assembly to adopt a proposal or any amendment submitted to it shall be put to a vote before a vote is taken on the proposal or amendment in question.

Rule 51
When a proposal has been adopted or rejected, it may not be reconsidered at the same session unless the UN-Habitat Assembly so decides. Permission to speak on a motion to reconsider shall be accorded only to two representatives opposing the motion, after which it shall be put to a vote immediately.

X. Decision-making process

General principles

Rule 52
Subject to the provisions of rule 41, the UN-Habitat Assembly may decide on any motion or proposal without a vote and shall normally make decisions by consensus. A vote shall, however, be taken if a member of the Assembly requests it.

Voting rights

Rule 53
Each State Member of the United Nations shall have one vote.
Majority required

Rule 54

1. Decisions of the UN-Habitat Assembly taken by vote shall be made by a majority of the Member States present and voting. If a vote is equally divided on a matter other than an election, the proposal or amendment shall be considered rejected.

2. For the purposes of the present rules, the phrase “members present and voting” refers only to Member States casting an affirmative or negative vote and does not include Member States which abstain from voting.

Method of voting

Rule 55

The UN-Habitat Assembly shall normally vote by a show of hands, but any member of the Assembly may, however, request a roll call, which shall then be taken in the English alphabetical order of the names of the members of the Assembly, beginning with the member whose name is drawn by the President. The vote of each Member State participating in a roll call shall be reflected in the relevant document of the Assembly.

Rule 56

Once the President has signalled the start of voting, no representative may interrupt the voting except on a point of order relating to the process of voting.

Explanation of vote

Rule 57

The President may permit a State Member of the United Nations to make a brief statement in explanation of his or her vote either before or after the voting on the proposal or motion being voted upon.

Division of proposals or amendments

Rule 58

A representative of a State Member of the United Nations may move that part of a proposal or an amendment be voted on separately. If objection is made to the request for division, the motion for division shall be voted on. Permission to speak on the motion for division shall be given only to two other speakers in favour and two speakers against. If the motion for division is carried, those parts of the proposal or the amendment that are approved shall then be put to a vote as a whole. If all operative parts of the proposal or the amendment have been rejected, the proposal or the amendment shall be considered to have been rejected as a whole.

Decisions on amendments

Rule 59

1. An amendment is a proposal that does no more than add to, delete from or revise part of another proposal.

2. When an amendment is moved to a proposal, the amendment shall be voted on first. When two or more amendments are moved to a proposal, the amendment furthest removed in substance from the original proposal shall be voted on first and then the amendment next furthest removed therefrom, and so on until all amendments have been put to a vote. However, where the adoption of one amendment necessarily implies the rejection of another amendment, the latter shall not be put to a vote. If one or more amendments are adopted, the amended proposal shall then be put to a vote. Where no amendment is adopted, the proposal shall be put to a vote in its original form.
Order of decisions on proposals

Rule 60
1. If two or more proposals are related to the same question, they shall be decided on in the order in which they were submitted, unless the UN-Habitat Assembly decides otherwise. The Assembly may, after a decision on one proposal, decide whether to go on to consider the next proposal.
2. A motion requiring that no decision be taken on the substance of a proposal shall be decided on before that proposal.

Elections

Rule 61
All elections shall be held by secret ballot unless otherwise decided by the UN-Habitat Assembly.

Rule 62
1. When two or more elective places are to be filled at one time under the same conditions, the candidates, in a number not exceeding the number of such places and obtaining in the first ballot the majority required and the largest number of votes shall be elected.
2. If the number of candidates obtaining such a majority is less than the number of places to be filled, additional ballots shall be held to fill the remaining places, with the exception that, if only one place remains to be filled, the procedures in rule 63 shall be applied. The ballot shall be restricted to the unsuccessful candidates who obtained the largest number of votes in the previous ballot, but not exceeding twice the number of places remaining to be filled. However, in the case of a tie between a greater number of unsuccessful candidates, a special ballot shall be held for the purpose of reducing the number of candidates to the required number; if a tie again results between a greater number of candidates than the number required, the President shall reduce their number to that required by drawing lots.
3. When a restricted ballot (not counting a special ballot held under the conditions specified in the last sentence of paragraph 2 above) is inconclusive, the President shall decide between the remaining candidates by drawing lots.

Rule 63
1. If, when only one elective place is to be filled, no candidate in the first ballot obtains the majority required, a second ballot shall be taken, confined to the two candidates having obtained the largest number of votes. If, in the second ballot, the votes are equally divided, the President shall decide between the candidates by drawing lots.
2. In the case of a tie in the first ballot between the candidates obtaining the second largest number of votes, a special ballot shall be held between such candidates for the purpose of reducing their number to two; similarly, in the case of a tie between three or more candidates obtaining the largest number of votes, a special ballot shall be held. If a tie again results in the special ballot, the President shall eliminate one candidate by drawing lots, and thereafter another ballot shall be taken between all the remaining candidates. The procedure prescribed in the present rules shall, if necessary, be repeated until one candidate is duly elected.
