Global Alliance for Urban Crises Round Table: The Role of UN-Habitat in Crisis Settings

Organized by UN-Habitat City Resilience Profiling Programme

Background

The Roundtable will discuss the importance of innovative partnerships (including local authorities), such as the Global Alliance for Urban Crises, to implement the New Urban Agenda in conflict countries or countries affected by man-made or natural disasters, drawing on its principles and what this means for operations on the ground. The Roundtable will give voice to member states and other key actors and be moderated by a UN-Habitat representative.

Relevance to the GC26 theme

The Roundtable will explore UN-Habitat's role in crisis situations, working with and through the Global Alliance for Urban Crisis, (for which UN-Habitat is a Steering Group member).

Objective

A roundtable discussion with Member states on how innovative partnerships can deliver the New Urban Agenda and UN-Habitat's role in crisis situations.
